

Make Smart Decisions...

- The theme still remains laser-focused on signs that decades-high US inflation is cooling or not?
- In today's trade, investors will prefer to stay on the side lines after the US 2-year yield jumped to 4.634%, while the 10-year yield was last pegged at 3.83%.
- Most importantly, the US Dollar index topped 104 levels for the first time since early January, as robust economic data threw some cold water on expectations for the ending of the Fed's tightening campaign.
- The only positive catalyst this Friday morning: FIIs have been buyers for past 5-trading sessions to the tune of Rs. 6088 crores.
- Stocks in ban: BHEL, PNB, AMBUJA CEMENT, INDIABULLS HOUSING FINANCE.
